OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION

Sir:

It has come to Applicant's attention that an Office Action has issued in the above referenced application. Applicant first learned of this Office Action in a status call placed to the Examiner on October 26, 2004. Applicant then downloaded a copy of the Office Action from the PAIR web site. The Office Action was apparently mailed to an incorrect address.

After a series of discussions with the Examiner, the Examiner indicated he would restart the response date for the Office Action and mail a copy of the Office Action to Applicant's representative referenced below. Applicant notes with appreciation that the PAIR web site shows an Office Action mailed on December 13, 2004 to Applicant's representative. Applicant takes this mailing as a restarting of the response date for the Office Action. To further ensure that an application for this invention remains pending, Applicant is filing a continuation application today. As also indicated over the phone, Applicant is interested in scheduling an interview with the Examiner to discuss this invention and the pending Office Action.

Respectfully submitted,
